

Why you Must PRE-ALERT

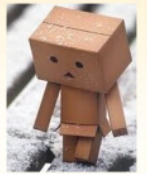

The Warehouse receives thousands of packages daily...

Give yours the VIP ("Very Important Package") treatment!

PRE-ALERTing is Necessary, Simple & Free:

- For FASTER PROCESSING of your packages at the Warehouse.
- To prevent packages from being lost or marked as "Unknown".
- So CORRECT Customs DUTIES can be applied based on description and value.
- Packages for CONSOLIDATIONS & REPACKS MUST be Pre-Alerted
- To SAVE MONEY! You receive 25% discount on shipment insurance cost.

Helpful Tips

PRE-ALERT All packages, regardless of size or cost!

- Send the Pre-Alert after the order is shipped but before it arrives at the Warehouse.
- Fill in all fields with accurate information about shipment contents. To avoid mistakes, Copy and paste values from shipper's email to you.
- Pre-Alert is your chance to fill in the actual purchase price, especially when you purchased item(s) on sale.
- When SHOPPING, Always include your Account number with the
